

Launch Of ActionAid Malawi Country Strategy Paper V: Action For Social Justice (2018 — 2023)

act:onaid

On 30th August, 2018, ActionAid Malawi launched the Country Strategy Paper V (CSP V) entitled, “Action for Social Justice”, replacing the CSP IV, “Peoples Action to a Poverty Free Malawi” that came to an end in December, 2017. The CSP V launch, which took place at Bingu International Convention Centre (BICC) was presided over by Minister of Gender, Children, Disability and Social Welfare, Honourable Dr. Jean Kalilani, MP. The Key-Note address was offered by the Minister of Health and Population, Honourable Atupele Muluzi, MP. The CSP V will run from 2018 to 2023. Below are the pictorial highlights of the function.

ActionAid Malawi Head of Programmes and Policy, Peter Pangani, making a power point presentation of the CSP V during the launch

Guest of Honour, Dr. Jean Kalilani alongside Minister of Health and Population, Atupele Muluzi pose with ActionAid Malawi General Assembly Members, Board of Directors, Staff, partners and delegates after the launch.

Ready to show-case: Part of ActionAid Malawi staff and partners at their pavilions during the launch.

ActionAid Malawi Executive Director, Grace Malera offering the welcoming remarks at the launch.

High table following the proceedings during the launch.

Guest of Honour, Honourable Dr. Jean Kalilani, congratulating ActionAid Malawi on the launch of the CSP V.

Guest of Honour, Dr. Jean Kalilani showing a copy of the launched CSP V as Muluzi looks on.

The two ministers, Honourable Dr. Jean Kalilani and Honourable Atupele Muluzi, listening to a presentation on a Global Fund Programme Pavillion.

ActionAid Malawi Chairperson, Professor Address Malata, making a speech at the launch.

Minister of Health and Population, Honourable Atupele Muluzi, offering the key-note address at the launch.

Guest of Honour, Dr. Jean Kalilani (left) and ActionAid Malawi Chairperson Address Malata after cutting the ribbon to mark the official launch of the CSP V.

Women dancing to celebrate the launch of the CSP V.